
2000 Election Update Report

The 2000 Election is behind us, and reports of a variety of research and study groups concerning the election have been finalized. J. Patrick Kelly, El Paso County, Colorado, Clerk & Recorder, has brought together ten of the final reports in a publication entitled "The 2000 Election: A Compilation of Final Reports."

The compilation includes: NACo/NACRC National Commission on Election Standards and Reform Report; The Election Center's National Task Force on Election Reform Report; The Florida Governor's Select Task Force Report; The Florida Senate Committee on Ethics and Elections Report; The CalTech/MIT Voting Technology Project Report; The Constitution Project's Report to the Forum on Elections Reform; The United States Civil Rights Commission Report and Dissenting Report; The United States GAO Reports on Congressional Authority in Elections and Issues Affecting Military and Overseas Voting; The National Association of Secretaries of State Election Reform Resolution; and The National Conference of State Legislatures Special Task Force on Election Reforms Recommendations.
